Women

IIT Palakkad's last medal hope were dashed after the girls went down fighting to title winners IIT Madras in the quarterfinals. The flag bearer of IIT Palakkad, Ishita, was spectacular throughout the competition winning all the four singles games in the pool stage. The team consisting of Ishita, Maria and Apoorva put up a brilliant show with three consecutive wins to qualify to the knockout stage of the competition. They also put up a valiant fight against IIT Kanpur, last year's runner ups in their first match in the competition. IIT Palakkad was the only third generation IIT to enter the quarterfinals in Badminton (women).
